

God's Promises a Son: Isaac

Read Genesis 15:1-18:15, 21:1-8. Put the events in the right order. Next to each event, write the scriptural reference where the event is found.

- ___ One of the visitors told Abraham that Sarah would have a son.
Verses: _____
- ___ Sarai gave her handmaiden Hagar to Abram to produce an heir.
Hagar bore Ishmael. Verses: _____
- ___ Sarah laughed within herself at the thought of having a child, and then denied doing so. Verses: _____
- ___ Sarah bore her son Isaac when Abraham was 100 years old. Sarah was old too.
Verses: _____
- ___ God changed Abram's name to Abraham and Sarai's name to Sarah. Verses:
_____
- ___ God promised Abram an heir and that he would inherit the land to which He brought him. Verses: _____
- ___ Sarah made cakes and Abraham prepared a calf for three male visitors. Verses:
_____
- ___ God promised to make Ishmael a great nation with twelve princes but that His promises to Abraham would be fulfilled through Isaac. Verses: _____
- ___ God promised a son to Sarah. Abraham laughed because he and Sarah were old.
Verses: _____

---

Visit BibleSchoolResources.Net for more free Bible school materials.